

Register now for the FREE MARAM training workshop 'Identifying and responding to Financial Abuse'

October 24 and 31 @ 9.30am

November 14, 21, and 28 @ 9.30am

December 5 @ 9.30am

Are you interested in building on your existing MARAM Identification or Intermediate level training?

Would you like practical steps you can apply to your work in responding respond to financial abuse and family violence?

This workshop for DFFH frontline workforces builds confidence in understanding financial abuse in the context of family violence and coercive control.

- The workshop explores case studies, practice considerations, and practical exercises using existing MARAM tools.
- You will learn about observable signs, impacts to victim survivors, barriers to seeking help and applying an intersectional lens.
- The workshop includes insights into working with adults using violence and non-collusive practice.

The workshops are co-facilitated by Specialist Family Violence Financial Counsellors from South East Community Links (SECL) and are proudly supported by Family Safety Victoria, a division of the Department of Families, Fairness and Housing (DFFH).
